

The Alternative Film Title Quiz

This quiz is quite simple; all you have to do is guess the film title from the alternative description given. The year the film was released is given as a clue. For example, 'nice looking female (1990)' is Pretty (nice looking) Woman (female). If you have any suggestions for other 'alternative' titles, you should follow these guidelines:

The film must be well known.

The alternative title should cover all the words in the title in the correct order.

The alternative title should not contain any of the words in the original title, but the odd 'of' or 'I' is only allowed as a last resort.
